

Dear Chairman Powell,
You know, it's anti-democratic to have too much media controlled by too few people. The rules should stay in place to prevent any one person or company from controlling too many of the media outlets. The more different voices can be heard, the better the democracy can work.
Bill Fishman